

Co-directing for big screen, streaming and stage

Their debut independent feature in 2014 was the fun-filled family mystery WHO KILLED NELSON NUTMEG? starring Bonnie Wright (Harry Potter) which had its world premiere at the BFI London Film Festival.

The follow up, FUTURE TX, a sci-fi action comedy starring comedy legend Griff Rhys Jones, was released theatrically across the UK in 2023. Tim & Danny then created, produced and directed the awarding-winning children's series DOG YEARS, which is streaming worldwide via Amazon and other platforms. Their next cinematic adventure is a madcap bodyswap film called THE SPY WHO LICKED ME, which received development funds from Screen Ireland.

They also direct for hire, including three TV movie rom-coms, broadcast around the world. Between them they have over 100 credits in film and TV.

They have also written animated features, including the RIKI RHINO franchise and in 2025, ALIENS FC. The follow up, TOP SECRET SANTA is in development now.

For children's TV, Danny has written for a variety of animation series including PJ MASKS for 20th Century Fox, TRANSFORMERS: RESCUE BOTS ACADEMY for Netflix and Discovery Channel, and the hugely popular BAFTA-winning series HEY DUGGEE for BBC and Netflix, and the new Thunderbirds for CITV. He is currently head writer on FLIX for RTE.

Tim wrote the BAFTA-nominated short EIGHT which was directed by triple Oscar-nominee Stephen Daldry - the Director of BILLY ELLIOT and THE CROWN. Tim's subsequent films as writer / director won awards from the BBC and were screened at Edinburgh Film Festival. He has also shot special effects material for many international shows including HBO's WATCHMEN and Netflix's WHAT IF?. Tim has been a Head Writer for the games industry, and has directed over 100 corporate and commercial productions.

They are both big supporters of the industry and are often found giving talks, being on judging panels and writing industry books.
