

Danny and Tim are writer/directors specialising in family entertainment.

Since 2014, they have written, produced and directed the most well-respected independent family feature films and children's series in the UK. Their debut feature was the fun-filled mystery WHO KILLED NELSON NUTMEG? starring Bonnie Wright (Harry Potter) which had its world premiere at the BFI London Film Festival. Tim & Danny created, produced and directed the awarding-winning children's series DOG YEARS, which is streaming worldwide via Amazon and other platforms. Their most recent movie, FUTURE TX, a sci-fi action comedy starring comedy legend Griff Rhys Jones, is due to be released in 2022/2023. Their next cinematic adventure is a madcap bodyswap film called THE SPY WHO LICKED ME, which has received development support from Screen Ireland.

THREE KEY DIRECTING STRENGTHS

STORY - our writing experience ensures that story and character are at the forefront of everything we do.

ACTORS - helping young actors achieve their best work. We've run workshops and talent camps on this.

IMPACT - we are masters in maximising the budget to bring visual impact and excitement to an audience.

For children's TV, Danny has written for a variety of animation series including PJ MASKS for 20th Century Fox, TRANSFORMERS: RESCUE BOTS ACADEMY for Netflix and Discovery Channel, and the hugely popular BAFTA-winning series HEY DUGGEE for BBC and Netflix, and the new Thunderbirds for CITV. He is currently head writer on a series called FLIX for RTE.

Tim wrote the BAFTA-nominated short EIGHT which was directed by Oscar-nominee Stephen Daldry - the Director of BILLY ELLIOT and Executive Producer of the Emmy-winning series, THE CROWN. Tim's subsequent films as writer / director won awards from the BBC and were screened at Edinburgh Film Festival. He has also shot special effects material for many international shows including HBO's WATCHMEN and Netflix's WHAT IF?. Tim has been a Head Writer for the games industry, and has directed over 100 corporate and commercial productions.
